Xeroform and/or Vaseline Gauzes - Dry Wound Care

These are specially treated gauzes that are used for wound coverage and to promote wound healing. They are placed on a moist, unhealed wound and allowed to dry completely as the wound heals beneath.

It is very important that you do not allow the dressing to get wet. As the dressing dries, a scab will form as part of the healing process.

Other Instructions: ___________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

Call the Burn Clinic at (619) 543-6505 if you experience any of the following:

• severe chills or fever
• excessive pain
• redness, swelling, or drainage
• odor at the site of the burn dressing